Everybody's talking about

Intimate Strangers

ART13, LONDON

Why is everybody talking about it?

This new series of drawings by Nina Fowler is inspired by photographs of, or taken by, people of resonance to the artist and gives her subjects an illusionary quality of real life.

Is it worth the hype? Yes, collectors of Fowler's drawings and sculptures of early movie stars include Jude Law.

Watch out for A young Marianne Faithfull sitting at a typewriter.
